William Lloyd Garrison Esq

Washington City
Sept. 13. 1862

My dear Sir:

I send you, to-day "Aristides".
Read it, if you shall so please. Will it not be Useful your way, every way? Abolition, now, is the word!
Without it the country — Union cannot be saved.

I have written you many times in the long run — I no answer.
I would give them the Publication, gratis if people would read instead of destroying: but I cannot afford it being moneyless — having but $2,000 by the time Ie.

With high cordial regards
Yours
Edward Davis
